

Workshop program

Day 1. Tuesday 14 November

All times CET

Session 1

15:00 – 15:05 Isak Hammar (Lund University) & Rens Bod (University of Amsterdam)
Welcome & Introduction

15:05 – 15:20 Kärin Nickelsen (LMU Munich)
How Disciplines Interact: Patterns from Photosynthesis Research

15:20 – 15:35 Karin Tybjerg (University of Copenhagen)
Epistemic Stuff: The Matter of Disciplinary Interaction

15:35 – 15:45 Discussion

15:45 – 16:00 Break

Session 2

16:00 – 16:15 Ana Simões (University of Lisbon)
Before and beyond the 1919 total solar eclipse and the British expeditions. Instances of travelling knowledge between disciplines and places

16:15 – 16:30 Emma Mojet (Utrecht University)
Data Collection Practices in Linguistics, Botany, and Social Science

16:30 – 16:40 Discussion

16:40 – 16:50 Break

Session 3

16:50 – 17:05 Raphaël Sandoz (University of Geneva)
A framework for studying disciplinary interactions: "The historical atlas of the disciplines"

17:05 – 17:20 Sjang ten Hagen (Utrecht University)
Historical Criticism in Late-Nineteenth-Century Physics

17:20 – 17:40 Discussion

Day 2. Wednesday 15 November

Session 4

15:00 – 15:15 Viktoria Tkaczyk (Humboldt University Berlin)
Auditory Images: Shared Concepts and Epistemic Pluralities around 1900

15:15 – 15:30 Catherine Herfeld (Leibniz University Hannover)
Crossing Domains: The Role of the Translator in Model Transfer

15:30 – 15:45 Jaehwan Hyun (Pusan National University)
What is Historical Evidence? History and Genetic History in South Korea

15:45 – 16:00 Discussion

16:00 – 16:10 Break

Session 5

16:10 – 16:25 H. Floris Cohen (Utrecht University)
Wilhelm Ostwald's 'Energeticist' Approach to the Sciences of Culture, and his Two Major Critics

16:25 – 16:40 Kapil Raj (EHESS Paris)
Go-Betweens, Boundary Crossings, and the Making of New Knowledge: The 19th-Century Indo-British Mapping of Tibet

16:40 – 16:50 Discussion

16:50 – 17:00 Jeroen van Dongen (University of Amsterdam)
Closing remarks